CSRI welcomes the UN Security Council Resolution for Preliminary Sanctions on the Mullahs' regime in Iran

The committee in Support of Referendum in Iran (CSRI), welcomes the UN Security Council resolution to impose sanctions on the Mullahs' regime in Iran, as a sign, that the international community will not tolerate a terrorist regime armed with nuclear weapons. The Mullah's sadistic reactions and threats during the course of the UN Security Council meeting revealed their vulnerability to such sanctions and should not be disregarded.

CSRI warns that the time is against the international community. Using the appeasement policy, Mullahs bought time over and over again, to almost finish their clandestine nuclear weapons project. CSRI calls for full and comprehensive, diplomatic, oil, weapons and technological sanctions against the fundamentalist regime of Iran and emphasizes that only a correct and firm policy against the Mullahs' fascist regime will bring peace to the Middle East and the world.
