PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 5, 2004

CSRI Offers condolences to victims of Iranian quake

In the wake of the devastating earthquake in the city of Bam and the surrounding areas, the Committee in Support of Referendum in Iran (CSRI) offers its deepest sympathy and condolences to the heroic people of Iran who have suffered in every way from the destructive rule of the mullah's regime in Iran in the past two decades.

Unimaginable and horrifying destruction and number of death which has reaches over 40,000 to this date—and is still rising—without any doubt, is a direct result of the regime's anti-human policies. The regime which has spent the riches of our nation only to build a suppressive apparatus and has only brought execution and misery for the Iranian people. In comparison, a less severe earthquake in California a few weeks ago results only in two deaths.

The Committee in Support of Referendum in Iran (CSRI) calls all caring people of the world, specially the Iranian people to assist the International Red Cross in their effort to help the surviving victims of this earthquake in any way they can.
